Construction Starting On Del Amo Church Here

The Del Amo Southern Baptist Church will begin a construction program this week at their permanent location, 226 Street and Ocean Avenue.

After an impressive dedication service at the church site, following the morning worship last Sunday, ground was broken for the first unit of an extended building plan. Turning the first spade was Mrs. Ann Rumbaugh, 20831 Felkner Drive, and her three children. Mrs. Rumbaugh was the first local resident to answer the newspaper challenge to participate in the founding of a new Southern Baptist Church in the Del Amo Center area.

Others who had a part in the ground breaking were Earl May, 23023 Kathryn Ave., chairman of the bond program that financed the building site; the deacons of the church, organizational leaders, and church officers. The general contractor, Kirk Gillett, 1508 Crenshaw Ave., was presented to the congregation. The first unit will be a two-story educational building with a chapel. Floor space will be 7,200 square feet and will provide facilities for initial attendance of 300. The second unit will be a three-story educational and recreation building, which will be followed at a later date with the main auditorium.

The congregation is at present in temporary quarters in the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., and a cordial invitation is extended to all residents of the area to visit the services of the church by the pastor, Daniel B. Weaver Jr.

INSTALLED . . . Leading the Torrance Chapter, Order of De Molay, for the current term is Steve Simpson (center) master councilor. On the left here is Robert Dowdy, senior councilor, and on the right is Gary Gladdys, junior councilor. Installation ceremonies were held at the Torrance Masonic Temple.
